For our second "Unconventional Ballet at the Convention Center," Global Movements has been completely reimagined by Artistic Director Stanton Welch as Play with memorable ballets created just for this unique space. Welch's beloved Play and Bolero return re-worked and re-choreographed. Additional new works to be announced including a world premiere ballet by Welch celebrating Houston's resilience. With a stage that extends into the audience on three sides, this theatre creates an immersive experience, bringing you closer to the dancers than ever before. It's an event not likely to be repeated.
